Bob Reynolds joined Brady Ware in 1992 after spending several years with a national accounting firm in Dayton. He is a senior Audit & Assurance Services Director and is responsible for a majority of the firm’s audit engagements, working with a variety of closely held commercial business and several nonprofit organizations. For over 30 years, Bob has worked closely with business owners and leaders of nonprofit organizations to formulate and implement strategies to effectively safeguard, manage and utilize resources. He has developed an expertise in consulting on such matters as strategic and succession planning, board development and governance, financial reporting and internal control systems. He leads Brady Ware’s Nonprofit Services team and is the engagement director and primary advisor to many of the firm’s nonprofit clients.

Bob also has a history of volunteer service. He is a member of the Boards of Directors of the Greater Dayton / Miami Valley Better Business Bureau, Wright State University Foundation, Wright State University Alumni Association, and the Miami Valley Nonprofit Collaborative. Bob is a recipient of the Indiana CPA Society’s Indiana’s Outstanding CPA in Community Service Award, the Indiana Association of United Way’s Volunteer of the Year Award, and he was awarded the Dave Donaldson Award of Distinction by the BBB of Dayton and Miami Valley in 2019.
